

Meppershall Pre-School

Whistle blowing policy

Definition

Whistle blowing is raising a concern about malpractice within an organisation.

Statement of Intent

Meppershall Pre-school is an organisation committed to delivering a high quality Preschool service, promoting organisation accountability and maintaining public confidence.

This policy provides individuals in the workplace with the protection from victimisation or punishment where they raise a genuine concern about misconduct or malpractice in the organisation. The policy is underpinned by the Public Interest Disclosure Act 1998, which encourages people to raise concerns about misconduct or malpractice in the workplace, in order to promote good governance and accountability in the public interest. The Act covers behaviour, which amount to:

- A criminal offence
- Failure to comply with any legal obligation
- A miscarriage of justice
- Danger to health and safety of an individual and/or environment
- Deliberate concealment of information about any of the above

Aim

It is not intended that this policy be a substitute for, or an alternative to the group's formal Grievance Procedure, but is designed to nurture a culture of openness and transparency within the organisation, which makes it safe and acceptable for employees and volunteers to raise, in good faith, a concern they may have about misconduct or malpractice.

Method

An employee or volunteer who, acting in good faith, wishes to raise such concern should normally report the matter to the manager who will advise the employee or volunteer of the action that will be taken in response to the concerns expressed. Concerns should be investigated and resolved as quickly as possible.

If an employee or volunteer feels the matter cannot be discussed with the manager, they are advised to speak to the Committee chair. If they still feel the matter could not be discussed within the organisation, he or she should contact our Local Authority Designated Officer (LADO) on 0300 300 8142 or OFSTED on 0300 123 4666 for advice on what steps to follow.

A Disclosure in good faith to the manager will be protected. Confidentiality will be maintained wherever possible and the employee or volunteer will not suffer any personal detriment as a result of raising any genuine concern about misconduct or malpractice with Meppershall Preschool.
